APRIL 2022

Sway, Shake and Shine

An Inter House Dance Competition was organised on 16th April. The participants tapped their feet to the tunes of western numbers and showcased their finesse and flamboyance. Dancers' supple limbs touched the rhythmic chord within the onlookers. Beats bettered the body language of the performers and the aesthetic sense of the audience.

Down Memory Lane

Our Alumni, Anant Mehrotra and Siddharth Pande engaged in a tete-a-tete with the students who lauded their Alma Mater for grooming them and shaping their personality. Through their deliberation, anecdotes of their good old days in the school and their present laurels, they earnestly encouraged the inmates to become icons of tomorrow and to make most of their time during the foundational years of their life.

Laurels for Leaders of Tomorrow

Leaders are born right in their teenage during school years and the Investiture Ceremony held on 23rd April was a testimony to this. When the senior most students took the School's baton in their hands and promised to add glorious feathers to its crown, they were encouraged with a hall full of cheer and claps. In-Charges of different fields took the onus of ensuring year round performance of pristine kind on their shoulders and it is understood that they will abide by their vows to see the school's flag fly high.

Life – Brighter on the Lighter Side

The boarders went on a picnic to Binsar Mahadev with much enthusiasm and exuberance. They indulged in creative and fun-filled activities spending the day in the lap of Nature basking under the bright Sun and shady pines. They eventually learned to live in sync with the world around us. They explored the untamed beauty of the wild and thus reclaimed their curiosity.

KALEIDOSCOPE OF CREATIVITY AND KINESIS

Sports Poetry of Physique

Success is where persistence and perseverance meet. In the long run, a trophy won is forgotten, but the sweat shed and memories made live forever. The boys leave no stone unturned to win the game not only for themselves but to score more points for their house as well. It is every player's prime aim to see their house flag flutter freely in the sky of success.

Timeless Titan of Literature

Shakespeare Day was observed on 23rd April in the school auditorium.

Children took part in various activities like Speeches, Reciting Sonnets of Shakespeare,

Enactment of an excerpt from the Merchant of Venice, Monologue Orations. The works of the Bard of Avon were fondly remembered through the dialogues amongst students and teachers. The entire programme kindled the literary spirit amongst everyone.

Talent Fiesta: Doorway to Joy

‘Use what talent you possess; the woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those that sang the best.’ The boys who embarked on the stage showcasing their talent in music, dance, poetry and performance were duly encouraged by the audience. Also, Our school felt really honoured to host the participants from Ashok Hall Girls’ Residential School, Majkhali for the show. The day turned out to be one filled with amalgamation of students of both schools and their talents.

Spring Shades on Souls

Holi, the festival of colours, was celebrated on the Campus with much hue and pomp. Children were in their usual jolly self playing with colours and draping each other with the shades of joy and frolic. A friendly football match was organised between Teachers and Students to mark their affinity and inimitable bond.

Young Artists at Work

Students participated in Art Week from 4th to 9th April filling their palettes and souls with multifaceted colours. As the saying goes, “Artists are born not made.” They ached in Collage and Poster making, Creative Painting, Outdoor Painting, etc. thus ensuring a shower of poesis and perfection.
